

ANGLO-CATHOLIC HISTORY SOCIETY

Churches in Cardiff

Saturday 21st April 2018

This tour in the capital city of Wales is planned and led by Ken Powell, one of our long-standing members who is himself a well-known architectural historian; Cardiff is his home town. We will be exploring the Anglo-Catholic churches in central Cardiff by coach and plan to include:

- St Margaret, Roath
- St Martin, Roath
- St Saviour, Roath
- St German, Roath where lunch will be served
- St Mary, Butetown
- SS Dyfrig & Sampson, Grangetown
- St Augustine, Penarth, where tea will be served

We return to the station not later than 6pm.

We are offering an optional extra for all participants in the Saturday Tour who are in Cardiff on the Friday afternoon, before the Tour. There will be a visit to Llandaff Cathedral, just outside the City centre, at 3 p.m. Members make their own way by bus 24/25 from City centre or taxi to the Cathedral. At the same time, we hope to see the modernist chapel of St Michael's College, Llandaff, adjacent to the Cathedral. This is a fine work by George Pace who was responsible for the restoration of the Cathedral after War damage.

On Saturday participants should make their own way to Cardiff and meet to board the coach by 10.00 a.m at Cardiff Central station.

The cost for each member and each guest is £45.00 including lunch and tea. Bookings should be sent to George Skelly, 24 Cloudesley Square, London N1 0HN, enclosing a cheque made payable to the Society. Please enclose an SAE for confirmation; this will be sent out near the date of the tour.
